

NIGHT RIDER CONFESSED

TAFT GETS OVATION IN NEW YORK

(By Associated Press.)

TROY (N. Y.), Oct. 27.—The industries of the cities and towns which line the banks of the picturesque Hudson from Greater New York to Troy were made the text of speeches by William Taft today, to the people of these cities and towns. The people of Yonkers smiled on the big form of the Ohioan through a heavy shower. He talked at length to as many as could get into the largest theater, and then addressed a large audience standing outside.

W. J. Bryan spoke in Yonkers yesterday, and saying he understood his distinguished opponent charged that the Republican party had done nothing for labor, Taft first asserted that the policies of the Republican party are chiefly devoted to the interests of labor, and then pointed out that with the protective policy, the sugar refining industry is made possible as the chief enterprise of that city.

Crowds in Tarrytown, Peekskill and Fishkill listened in the rain to short speeches delivered from the rear of the car.

When the Taft special reached Poughkeepsie, the candidate was driven to the Collinwood opera house, which was crowded to its doors. A class of girls from Vassar college tried to "get" Judge Taft's speech in shorthand, and an enthusiast in the gallery attracted brief attention by shouting: "He surely wears the smile that won't wear off."

"It will still be there next Tuesday," rejoined the judge, and in his hope the audience seemed to concur.

Another brief speech was made at Hudson, after which the special ran to Schenectady, where three labor speeches were made.

According to Burton's confession, Tom and Garrett Johnson, now under arrest, and William Watson, under bond in connection with another raid, were the leaders of the lake band. The confession was made freely and voluntarily, without offer of lessened punishment or under threats.

BRYAN IS AFTER THE LABOR VOTE

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—Winding up his remarkable campaign about Greater New York, William J. Bryan was whirled 115 miles in an automobile in Manhattan and Brooklyn during the day and night and made eighteen speeches between the hours of 6 and 12 tonight. In New York he was accompanied by Tammany Leader Charles Murphy. Arriving at Brooklyn bridge he was met by Senator Patrick McCarren, the Democratic leader of Kings county.

Lieutenant Governor Chanler's campaign for governor coincided with Bryan's itinerary in both Manhattan and Brooklyn, and while he was in one place pleading loyal support for the national ticket, Bryan at another was urging votes for the state candidates from governor down and for the Democratic nominees for congress. Bryan made eighteen speeches during the day and was enthusiastically received everywhere. Although he had but two hours' sleep out of thirty-six, Bryan spoke with all his characteristic vigor and good humor.

In all his speeches today Bryan warned the workingmen against traitors among them. He asserted that every laboring man who voted the Republican ticket would vote to repudiate the things that labor demanded in the Denver platform. He held up Taft as an enemy of labor, and assailed him at every opportunity.

The Chinese government has set aside the sum of 400,000 taels ($250,000 in United States gold) to meet the expenses of entertaining the battleship squadron during its visit. The committee in charge of this arrangement has stated that the Pekin government has signified its willingness to make an additional appropriation should the original appropriation prove inadequate.
